

Kickstart your International Leadership career at Eaton. We seek tomorrow's leaders.

We are looking for geographically mobile, talented and ambitious people who are eager to learn and grow into leadership positions.

Our early talent graduate leadership development program offers an array of learning experiences. Our customized development curriculum includes leadership training, career coaching and networking with senior leaders. You will get to fast-track your development through rotational assignments in different Eaton locations within EMEA, with exposure to multiple businesses.

We offer 5 different career tracks: Finance, Operations, Engineering & Technology, Commercial, Human Resources

Why should you join the live stream

- Join the webinar to learn more about our early talent leadership development program and the different career tracks.
